

PTI's white paper: MQM accused of killing thousands (Daily Times)

LAHORE: The Pakistan Tehrik-e-Insaf (PTI) on Monday issued a white paper against Muttahida Quami Movement (MQM) and urged the government to make it clear whether it was a political group or a gang of terrorists.

PTI general secretary Air Marshal (r) Shahid Javid, and Punjab PTI president Ehsan Rashid and general secretary Amin Zaki, while issuing the white paper at a press conference, alleged that the MQM was involved in former Sindh governor Hakim Saeed's murder. They also accused the MQM of killing SHOs Bahadur Ali and Imdad Khatian, DSP Bashir Ahmad Noorani (from Sukkur), five relatives of DSP Nisar Khawaja, DSP Tanoli, Journalist Muhammad Salahuddin, Azim Ahmad Tariq, Zohair Akram Nadeem, Pir Pagaro's son-in-law Salim Malik and KESC chairman Malik Shahid Hamid.

They alleged that the MQM also kidnapped and killed a number of Steel Mills employees in 1990.

The PTI leaders said that the MQM had even politicised the observation of the Kashmir day on February 5 and distributed booklets and pamphlets against Pakistan in the UN headquarters in Geneva in 1996-97.

The PTI leaders alleged that the 'MQM terrorists' killed many foreigners, including US embassy officials in Karachi.

They alleged that the MQM destroyed 475 vehicles, 20 banks, 102 houses, 95 shops, two telephone exchanges, 20 offices of different political parties, 12 petrol pumps, two factories, four police stations and various government offices during the last 12 years. The PTI leaders said that the PTI was collecting evidences against the MQM which the party chief Imran Khan would present before the court at the time of the hearing of cases against Altaf Hussain in London. staff report

Read More