

May 12 MUST Never be Forgotten (Dawn)

May 12 must never be forgotten

By Maheen A. Rashdi

The chief minister of the province who rules over the largest city of the country too is under oath to serve and protect his people. Has he stepped down or offered an unconditional apology? No.

The governor who rules over the province and sits in his palatial offices in Karachi is also under oath to serve and protect his people. Has he stepped down or assumed responsibility? No.

Read More on Daily Dawn's Website